

THOMAS F. EAGLETON SCHOLARSHIP
2010-2011 Application

READ THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Overview/Background

Thank you for expressing interest in the Thomas F. Eagleton Scholarship. This scholarship ($10,000) was established by Thompson Coburn LLP to honor the memory and work of our longtime partner and friend, Senator Thomas F. Eagleton, in the legal community, the community-at-large and the U.S. Senate. The objective of the scholarship is to encourage diverse students to apply to law school and pursue a legal career, and to promote diversity in the legal profession.

Requirements for Eligibility:

To be eligible to receive the Thomas F. Eagleton Scholarship an applicant must meet all of the following requirements:

1. Be enrolled as a first year law school student at one of the following law schools: Washington University School of Law, Saint Louis University School of Law, University of Missouri – Columbia School of Law or University of Illinois School of Law.
2. The applicant must have achieved a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) at his or her undergraduate institution.
3. The applicant must be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States of America, or able to work in the United States without limit as to duration or the need for employer sponsorship (students in F-1 status are not eligible).
4. Must demonstrate the ability to promote or enhance diversity in the legal profession.

Before receiving scholarships funds, recipient will be required to demonstrate admission to and plans to enroll at one of the participating law schools.

THOMAS F. EAGLETON SCHOLARSHIP
2010-2011 Application

Application Instructions:

1. Application Form. Each applicant must complete the attached application form.
2. Personal Statement. Your personal statement is your opportunity to include information that the application form does not convey and that you feel will assist us in reaching a thoughtful decision on your application. Examples of this information include a description of your personal strengths; your contributions through community service; a description of any obstacles, if any, you have overcome in pursuing your education; and the special qualities you would bring to the legal profession. While this list is not all-inclusive, it is intended to provide you with examples of the types of information we may find useful in evaluating your application. Please limit your personal statement to 500 -1,000 typed words and use only one side of the paper. Font size must be at least 10 point.
3. Recommendations. Each applicant must submit two recommendations, at least one of which may be from a professor or employer. Recommendations should not be from a friend, neighbor or family member. Appropriate people to ask include employers, school advisors, coaches and recent professors. No more than two recommendations will be considered. Recommendation letters are particularly useful when the writer provides substantive, comparative information about the applicant's abilities, activities and personal qualities, including specific examples that illustrate these attributes.

The recommenders should return their letters to you in sealed, signed envelopes, to be included with your application. If your law school maintains a central file of recommendations, that office may place copies of the recommendations in a sealed envelope signed by an authorized person in that office. The recommendations must be submitted with the application.
4. Transcript. Each applicant must submit an official sealed copy of his or her transcript from his or her undergraduate institution and graduate institution (if any).
5. Additional information. Please do not send any collateral materials such as photos, articles, resumes, etc. beyond the materials required above. Please do not insert the scholarship application in any type of binder, folder or binding.
