When Thompson Coburn is hiring, we have one goal in mind: find terrific people who love what they do and who will enhance our culture. It's a simple formula that we live by.

We work hard, and we work smart. This benefits our clients, lawyers and other professionals. It also means we recognize the importance of finding joy and seeking laughter. We all want to balance the grit of our successes and the joy of sharing a job well done with people we like and respect.

“When I ask for support or guidance, the answer is always, ‘Yes, how can we help? We’ll figure it out and do it right.’ “

Mariquita Barbieri, lateral partner in 2022

“It’s always been about, ‘Let’s go out there as partners, as colleagues.’ That really helps with camaraderie, and it helps you make the best pitch possible for the client.”

Michael Parks, lateral partner in 2009
