EDUCATION

- Texas A&M, J.D.

Abdullah's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, fiduciary litigation, and investigations.

Prior to joining the firm, Abdullah clerked for the Honorable E. Lee Morris of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

Abdullah graduated second in his class from Texas A & M School of Law, where he served as a Senior Articles Editor for the Texas A & M Law Review and as a brief writer on Texas A & M's Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition team. Before attending law school, Abdullah worked as a staff assistant at the International Monetary Fund and as a high school English teacher in small-town Texas. He holds a B.A. in English from the University of Virginia.
