Jeremy is an Associate in the Product Liability/Mass Tort group. Jeremy earned his J.D. from George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School where he graduated cum laude.

While in law school, Jeremy received the George Mason University Foundation Full-Tuition Scholarship and was recognized as a Dean's Scholar. He was a member of the George Mason Law Review, a Student Advisor to the Mason Veterans and Servicemembers Legal Clinic, and a Student Member of the Mason Inn of Court. He also completed internships with the United States Department of Defense, Department of Justice, and Army JAG Corps.

Prior to joining the Firm, Jeremy served as a law clerk for the Honorable Stephen R. Clark, Chief District Judge for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri. During his two-year clerkship, Jeremy gained significant experience researching various complex legal issues, drafting opinions and orders, and assisting with trials and hearings.
