

Quianna Solomon

Senior Paralegal

Chicago
312 580 2343 direct
312 580 2201 fax
qsolomon@thompsoncoburn.com

PRACTICES

- Real Estate Tax Assessment

EDUCATION

- Kennedy King College, Computer Science and Psychology, 2001-2002
- Chicago State University, Computer Science and Psychology, 1997-1999

AFFILIATIONS

- Illinois Paralegal Association (IPA MEMBER)

EMPLOYMENT

- Thompson Coburn LLP
Senior Paralegal, 2022-Present
Practice Area Assistant, 2002-2022
- Allen A. Lefkowitz & Associates
Paralegal, 2001-2002
- Young, Rosen, Finkel & Silbert,
Ltd. Paralegal, 1999-2001

As a real estate tax assessment senior paralegal, Quianna performs a variety of tasks which include, but are not limited to, contesting real estate tax assessments on behalf of clients by filing complaints with the Cook County Assessor's Office, the Cook County Board of Review, the State of Illinois Property Tax Appeals Board and in the Circuit Court in the form of specific tax objections.

She also assists attorneys in the management and appeal of over 1,600 properties covering the entire spectrum of real estate including Downtown Chicago office buildings, shopping centers, steel plants and other industrial facilities, landfills, motels, nursing homes, apartment buildings, housing projects, condominiums, exempt properties and vacant land and/or ongoing construction projects in need of interim relief.