

Steven Seif

Partner

New York
212 478 7370 direct
212 478 7400 fax
sseif@thompsoncoburn.com

PRACTICES

- Business Finance

ADMISSIONS

- New York

EDUCATION

- New York University School of Law, J.D., 1978
- University of Pennsylvania, B.S., cum laude, 1975

EMPLOYMENT

- Thompson Coburn; Partner, 2021-Present
- Hahn & Hessen; Partner, 1986-2021 Managing Partner, 2003-2012

AFFILIATIONS

- Association of Commercial Finance Attorneys, President 2001-2003
- American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers
- SFNet
- Education Foundation, Leadership Council
- American Bar Association, Business Law Section, Member, Committee on Commercial Financial Services

Steve represents banks, finance companies, factors, mezzanine lenders and other providers of credit in negotiating and documenting complex financial transactions. He also assists his clients in successfully navigating workouts and restructurings.

Steve's recent transactions include refinancings, acquisition financings, and multi-lender and multi-borrower transactions involving both privately held and public companies.

Steve frequently lectures on matters of interest to financial institutions at professional organizations, on educational panels and as part of in-house presentations for clients. Steve has published articles in the National Law Journal, the UCC Law Journal and was a contributor to "Asset Based Financing: A Transactional Guide," published by Matthew Bender & Company.

Steve is a past president of the national Association of Commercial Finance Attorneys, whose members are in-house attorneys and attorneys in private practice with national and international experience in middle-market commercial credit transactions and commercial bankruptcy matters.