Cliff Godiner Named to Employment POWER List

Thompson Coburn partner Cliff Godiner has been named to the Missouri Lawyers Media Employment Law 2024 POWER List. The annual list spotlights the most powerful employment attorneys in Missouri. "These are practitioners who have won notable jury trials under state and federal anti-discrimination statutes, class action settlements on wage-and-hour claims and important precedents in appellate courts that continue to shape the law," the publication noted.

Cliff has 30+ years of experience advising employers and representing them in state and federal courts across the country. He helps employers respond to claims involving discrimination, wage and hour violations, wrongful discharge, and non-compete actions and has defeated numerous class actions through decertification or summary judgment. Cliff also represents employers under the National Labor Relations Act and handles Railway Labor Act matters.
