Three Lawyers and a Drone - Episode 1: Drone disruptions at airports and public spaces

In the first episode of Thompson Coburn's new podcast, Three Lawyers and a Drone, we discuss the issue of drone disruptions at airports and other public spaces. Recent high-profile disruptions at airports have caused confusion and expensive delays.

In this episode, we cover:

- FAA efforts to educate drone operators and prevent disruptions
- Counter-drone efforts such as nets, barriers, and even birds
- Technological efforts to detect and counter unmanned aircraft
- The status of the FAA's remote identification efforts
