I assist clients in navigating the complexities of business immigration matters with precision and care, from initial filing to permanent residency.

Doris Gudermuth has over two decades of combined experience in the firm's labor and employment and immigration practice areas. She has a deep understanding of the highly regulated processes and various facets of business immigration law.

Doris handles immigrant and non-immigrant visa petitions, with a particular focus on complex H-1B petitions and other employment-based visa classifications. She is skilled in guiding clients through all phases of the PERM labor certification process, including prevailing wage requests, recruitment campaigns, PERM applications, and ultimately, the I-140 immigrant petition and adjustment of status application.

in my free time

I love being silly and laughing with my grandchildren most of all. I enjoy good coffee, dark chocolate, and French ice cream - pistachio is my favorite. I can often be found tuning in to "Masterpiece Theatre" or listening to a podcast that has sparked my curiosity. It's the simple things in life for me: time with family, friends, and of course my chocolate lab, Bella.
