

I leverage my background as a teacher and researcher to synthesize complex legal issues into practical advice for my clients.

overview

Eric Hogrefe assists clients in a broad range of complex civil litigation matters in state and federal court.

Eric works closely with clients to solve challenging litigation issues, and his practice includes whistleblower, breach of contract, securities, and constitutional cases.

Additionally, Eric draws on his background as a university faculty member to offer sensible advice to higher education institutions facing a variety of regulatory and litigation issues.

in my free time

I enjoy playing the guitar and hiking. Recently, I have hiked in Rocky Mountain National Park, Glacier National Park, and in the French and Italian Alps.
