I help clients in a wide variety of complex litigation matters including antitrust, advertising, and other business disputes.

overview

Jocelin Tapia helps clients in a broad range of industries manage civil disputes. Her work has included matters of commercial disputes, health care, antitrust, advertising disputes, construction, and product liability.

She performs legal research, drafts and reviews pleadings, assists with client communications, and helps to develop and execute strategy at all stages of litigation. Jocelin also helps clients with counseling in the areas of antitrust and advertising, including analysis of company materials and potential transactions.

Before joining Thompson Coburn, Jocelin worked at a litigation boutique in Dallas specializing in commercial litigation.

While in law school, Jocelin was the Administrative Editor for the Texas Journal on Civil Liberties & Civil Rights. As an undergraduate at the University of Tampa, she and her Moot Court team partner earned a spot in the National Tournament for the American Moot Court Association.
