overview

Kamran Anwar's practice centers on delivering results in a variety of settings, from trials to informal negotiations. He advises businesses on practical and effective strategies for handling disputes and assists trial teams in developing effective themes, presenting complex evidence, and telling impactful stories.

Kamran's experience includes serving as a volunteer summer intern for the Honorable Catharina Haynes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and as an extern for the Honorable Karen Gren Scholer of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas. Notably, he earned first place in a statewide legal writing competition hosted by Baylor Law School and won a regional championship in the ABA's National Appellate Advocacy Competition.

Intern to Hon. Catharina Haynes, Summer 2018

in my free time

I enjoy dissecting films with my wife and chasing my young son around restaurant patios. I am an avid fan of the Dallas Cowboys, Stars, and Mavericks and follow the Red Bull Racing F1 team. Occasionally, you can find me tending to my backyard garden or serving as a part-time ranch hand on the family cattle ranch in East Texas.
