EDUCATION

Drake University,
Arizona State University,
Fairleigh Dickinson University,

I am passionate about helping our clients find solutions to their immigration-related needs, including work visas, green cards and U.S. citizenship.

overview

With several years of experience in immigration law, Melissa Weber is a key player in helping the firm's attorneys handle a range of employment and family-based immigration services.

Highly meticulous and service-oriented, Melissa provides assistance to clients seeking work-related visas for their foreign-national employees, including H-1B, L-1, O-1 and TN visas, as well as navigating the employment-based green card process from the initial PWR stage through filing I-140 and I-485 petitions. She also has experience in filing family-based cases, such as K-1 fiancé visas, I-130 petitions for family members living in the U.S. and abroad, and subsequent I-485 and I-751 filings.

In addition, Melissa has extensive experience filing citizenship applications for permanent residents in various situations. Melissa has experience assisting clients in both the public and private sectors, from multi-national level companies to local small businesses.

in my free time

When I'm not helping clients file their immigration petitions, I enjoy spending time outside camping, hiking, canoeing and paddle boarding. I try to travel as often as possible and had the great pleasure of serving as a Peace Corps volunteer in beautiful Costa Rica. I also enjoy reading science fiction and fantasy books, and am a true-crime podcast junkie.
